ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 28th August, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by

V.K. Shrivastava, J.

(1) The Petitioner has filed this instant application alleging that his daughter Smt. Sukhmati Marar died within seven years of her marriage. She was being subjected to cruelty for demand of dowry in her matrimonial house by her husband and in-laws. On 26.01.05 she and her minor daughter aged around 2 years were killed by her husband and in-laws by administering poison to them, but the Police Officials are not making proper investigation in the crime.

(2) On the other hand, learned counsel for the State submits that investigation has already been done, charge-sheet has been filed, case has been committed to the Court of session and the trial is in progress. Learned counsel for the petitioner did not controvert the above submission of the State counsel.

(3) Since the investigation has already been taken place, after due investigation, charge-sheet has been filed and case has been committed to the Court of Sessions and trial is in progress, if the petitioner has any further grievance it is for him to move appropriate application before the trial Court for it, instead of keeping his lis pending here.

(4) With the aforesaid observation, the writ petition stands disposed of.
